

WTU OFFICE OF PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT & EDUCATIONAL ISSUES

ER&D Summer Institute 2010 Announcing New PD Series: Strategies for Student Success (SSS)

Join us this summer for our new series featuring five different modules. Modules are designed to be delivered in four hours.

This research-based program consists of modules that address teaching and learning aspects of the classroom for both new and veteran teachers. Concepts and/or topics for this summer series include: 1) Differentiating Instruction, 2) Teaching English Language Learners, 3) Addressing Student Behavior and Anger in the Classroom, 4) Using Questions to Teach and Learn, and 5) The Power of Collaboration.

The modules are designed to create a manageable method of connecting with educators. The goals of this program are to offer quality professional learning, and strengthen institutions for teaching and learning. One module will be taught each day.

Wed., June 23 – Tues., June 29 2010, 9:00am-1:00pm
Hart Middle School, 601 Mississippi Ave., SE
Participants earn 20 seat hours (PLUs)
$50 for WTU Members – See registration form