

Washington Teachers' Union

Summary of VEBA Benefits Paid

The Washington Teachers' Union Voluntary Employee Beneficiary Association (VEBA) benefit Plan provides Supplementary Unemployment Benefits which were promised as Option 2 in the WTU Collective Bargaining Agreement with the District of Columbia Public Schools to excessed permanent status WTU members with twenty (20) or more years of service and most recent IMPACT evaluation scores of effective or higher have the option of receiving Supplemental Unemployment Benefits.

For eligible participants, there are five annual payments of $21,300 each equaling a total payout of $106,500. Teachers who were excessed in 2011-2012 and 2012-2013 were given an additional $10,000.

To date, the VEBA fund supports 31 beneficiaries.

