

Help a DC "angel" have a happy holiday.

There are children in need across DC, "angels," who might have a bleak holiday this year, but you can make their holiday happy through the Salvation Army's Angel Tree Program.

Participating in the program has become a Washington Teachers' Union tradition. Children in need submit their wish lists of clothes and toys and then Angel Tree workers find people who care enough to donate the requested gifts.

This year, the WTU has pledged to make sure 75 angels have a great holiday.

Won't you adopt one or more of them? You may adopt an "angel" as an individual or as part of a school staff or group.

To participate in the Angel Tree Program, send an e-mail to info@WTUlocal6.org with the information below:

- your name
- your personal e-mail
- your cell phone number
- the name of your school
- how many Angels you'd like to help

We will send you all the information necessary to participate in the Angel Tree Program.

Once you register, you'll be asked to deliver your gifts to WTU headquarters no later than Friday, November 30. The address is 1239 Pennsylvania Ave. SE, Washington, DC 20003.
