

Washington Teachers' Union

Amplifying the Voice of DC Teachers

Elizabeth A. Davis, President

1239 Pennsylvania Avenue, S.E. Washington, D.C. 20003 • 202.517.1477 • www.wtulocal6.org

Are you passionate about teaching?
BECOME A WTU TRAINER
JUNE 6, 5PM, WTU HEADQUARTERS

The WTU Office of Professional Development is looking for effective teachers to become certified trainers in the WTU/AFT Professional Development program, which operates under a partnership between the WTU and its parent organization, the American Federation of Teachers (AFT). Selected instructors will begin training in June and July.

If you are interested, come to the Trainer Recruitment Event to be held Thursday June 6, 5PM, at the WTU Teacher Center, 1239 Pennsylvania Avenue, S.E. Learn more about this exciting teacher leadership and extra earning opportunity.

RSVP and request an application today at: support@wtulocal6.net.

To qualify, you must be a WTU member, have a Master's degree, at least 3 years of DCPS teaching experience, and have a great passion for the profession.

Remember, RSVP and request an application at:
support@wtulocal6.net